A NOTE BEFORE WE BEGIN

TO THE SPIRITUAL ENTHUSIASTS AND PRACTITIONERS

I am so glad this found you!

Have you ever pulled a Tarot or Oracle card or had a random experience you weren't sure what it meant? That experience is not random, it is your shadow asking to become your friend.

This is where the Three Mindsets come in, as Shadow is your Emotional Self and greatest teacher, Ego is your Logical Self trying to keep you safe and Light is your Higher Self. Your intuition rises once Shadow has been heard and Ego acknowledged rather than obeyed.

Quantum entanglement shows us this connection is real as two linked particles share one combined state even far apart. You and the universe are entangled the same way, so a sign appearing at the right moment is correlation between your inner state and the world around you.

The Three Mindsets untangle when Shadow and Light work as a team rather than clashing, and this is where the Triple 'I' Abundance Method meets the moment. Intention is the noticing, when a sign appears and Shadow relates it to you personally. Initiation is sitting with what Shadow is showing you rather than acting from impulse. Integration is Light stepping forward, putting an empowered small step into motion.

A card reading or Reiki session mirrors this process, reflecting what your intuition already knows. I act as a mirror, letting your shadow speak in light of your higher self as your Intention becomes clearer in what you want to Initiate, leading you to befriend your shadow and carry it forward as strength. So many clients have shared the shift kept unfolding for months after.

So many clients have shared the shift kept unfolding for months after, as Shadow's lesson settled and Light guided them forward, now acting as wisdom in their life and living from their higher truth.

. What began as a single sign in a session became a steady thread through their week, showing up in conversations, decisions, and moments of clarity, leaving them feeling more empowered as they came to know their own values.

Every challenge you have carried has been shaping you all along and by the final page you will see it as strength rather than something to fear.

ABOUT ME

My name is Bailey TigerWolf and I am a Shamanic Medium, Intuitive Alignment Coach and Artist based in Brisbane, Australia.

I work online and in person with people standing at a crossroads, sensing that something bigger is available to them than the life they have been living. Integrating challenges into strength is the gift I guide and teach people and this Ebook is the beginning of that conversation.

My gift to you is simply seeing you for your power and your worth. You are not your challenges the way you see them now and with the right awareness you can alchemise them into your strength.

Through card readings and Reiki sessions, I have watched the same quiet miracle unfold again and again. So many clients have shared the shift kept unfolding for months after, as Shadow's lesson settled and Light guided them forward, now acting as wisdom in their life and living from their higher truth.

This was breakthroughs and it is what shaped Decoding Your Challenges as Strength Ebook and forming the beginners course Reclaim and Create the Magician Archetype of your life.

If you are ready to realise your worth and meet your own strength then this ebook is where the journey begins.

CHAPTER ONE

YOU WERE NEVER THE PROBLEM

There is a story most of us have been carrying since childhood and it goes something like this.

There is something wrong with me. I am too much or too little or too sensitive or not enough. My struggles are evidence of my weakness and if I could just get myself together everything would be fine.

THAT STORY IS A LIE. AND THE PART OF YOU THAT HAS BEEN BELIEVING IT DESERVES TO KNOW THE TRUTH.

Your struggles are not random. Your patterns are not accidents. The emotions that feel overwhelming and the moments that keep repeating themselves are not signs that you are broken.

THEY ARE SIGNS THAT SOMETHING IN YOU IS READY TO BE UNDERSTOOD.

In the shamanic tradition I was trained in, we call this the Shadow. Not a dark or frightening thing. Shadow as your Emotional Self is the raw, honest and unfiltered part of you that you were taught to hide, that is the rage, the grief and the longing, the parts of you that felt too big for the rooms you were in.

Those parts never left. They went underground and from there they have continued to shape your choices, your patterns and what you allow yourself to receive. They have been speaking to you through your challenges all along. You simply were never taught how to listen.

“YOUR CHALLENGES ARE NOT YOUR WEAKNESS. THEY ARE THE MOST HONEST CONVERSATION YOUR SOUL HAS EVER TRIED TO HAVE WITH YOU.”

CHAPTER TWO

THE SECRET OF DECODING YOUR SIGNS

Every pattern that has frustrated you, every emotion that has felt too big, every moment of self sabotage or fear or feeling stuck. These are not obstacles on your path. They are the path itself, as they are your soul's most direct attempt to get your attention

SO HOW DO YOU BEGIN TO KNOW THEM?

THE FIRST STEP IS TO STOP FIGHTING THEM.

Most of us spend enormous amounts of energy trying to fix, suppress or outrun the parts of ourselves that feel difficult. We try to think our way out of feelings. We set goals from a place of wanting to escape who we are, rather than from a place of knowing who we truly are.

The moment you stop treating your challenges as enemies and start treating them as messengers, something shifts. Not because you have fixed anything, but because you have finally become willing to listen.

THE SECOND STEP IS TO ASK THE RIGHT QUESTION.

Not 'how do I make this stop?' Instead ask 'what is this trying to show me in relation to my own values?'

When a pattern keeps repeating in your life it is because the lesson inside it has not yet been received. Your soul is patient and it will keep sending the same sign in different forms until you are ready to receive what it carries.

The anger that keeps rising is pointing toward a boundary that needs to be honoured. The fear that keeps arriving is pointing toward a wound that is ready to be met with compassion. The grief that sits quietly beneath everything is pointing toward something you loved and are ready to release.

THE THIRD STEP IS TO INTEGRATE WHAT YOU FIND.

Integration is not a battle won. It is a homecoming.

It is the moment you stop seeing a part of sabotage or fear or stuckness, these are not obstacles on your path. They are the path itself, as they are your soul's most direct attempt to get your attention

THAT IS WHERE ALCHEMY BEGINS.

“YOUR SHADOW BECOMES WISDOM. WISDOM BECOMES LIGHT. AND LIGHT... THIS BECOMES THE LIFE YOU HAVE ALWAYS KNOWN WAS POSSIBLE.”

CHAPTER THREE

KNOWING YOUR TRUTH IS THE ALCHEMY

The alchemy is not something that happens to you. It is not a technique you learn or a method you apply. It is the moment you stop pretending that the most honest parts of you do not exist and start letting them lead you toward what is true. Inside you there are three presences that have always been there.

Shadow as your Emotional Self is the raw, wild and unfiltered part of you that has been trying to tell you the truth for years. Ego as your Logical Self is the narrator and manager, the voice that has been trying to keep you safe. Light as your Inner Compass is the quiet knowing that sits beneath all the noise and has never once been confused about who you are.

The alchemy happens when all three are no longer at war. When your Shadow is heard rather than hidden. When your Ego is guided rather than driving. When your Light is trusted rather than dismissed.

That is your truth as it is the place where your challenges transform into clarity and your greatest perceived weakness becomes the source of your greatest strength and direction.

This is not spiritual theory. This is lived experience through me and my clients and it is the work I lovingly and passionately guide people through every single day.

THE TRANSFORMATION

KNOWING YOUR TRUTH IS THE ALCHEMY

If you have got this far you are resonating on some level! Decoding Your Challenges as Strength, you already know the feeling I am talking about. That small quiet moment when something in you nodded and said yes, this is true, this is part of my story too.

That resonance is not a coincidence, it is your own strength reaching out to be recognised.

Reading about the shift is one thing, living it is another. The Ebook opened the door and showed you what is possible when you stop avoiding your shadow and start letting it teach you instead.

Now imagine what becomes possible when you actually walk through that door and your guided step by step, with real tools and real support behind you.

This is exactly what the Reclaim and create the Magician Archetype was designed for. Over four weeks we take everything that stirred in you while reading and turn it into a living practice, working with your challenges as sacred material rather than something to fear.

You move through the same process I have used with clients again and again, setting true intention, taking your brave first step and integrating what you uncover into your everyday life until it becomes who you are.

If the ebook stirred something in you, trust that feeling, because it was only ever meant to be the beginning. The Magician Archetype begins 27 July and there is a seat here for you if you are ready to turn that small resonance into real transformation. I would love to walk this next stretch of the path with you.

“YOU DO NOT NEED TO BE FIXED.

YOU NEED TO BE HEARD.”

AND WHAT YOU FIND IN THAT HEARING IS THE BEGINNING OF EVERYTHING.”

REIKI & CARD READING

Online and in Person Bald Hills QLD

I believe true healing happens when you work with all three parts of yourself at once. Shadow as your Logical Self is that loud voice listing every reason you cannot do it.

Light as your Inner Compass is what blazes forward when you honour them both and rise into your higher self.

That is exactly why I weave mindset coaching with Reiki, because when you settle the body the deeper layers become accessible in a way that thinking alone never reaches. From that open and activated place we move into the cards. You bring your questions and everything sitting heavy or unclear, and together we open the space from there.

A card is not a prediction, it is a mirror. The image, the colour and the symbols reflect your Shadow, your Ego and your Light back to you, so you can finally see what has been quietly shaping your life and what is ready to shift. You leave with clarity and a deeper trust in yourself to carry forward.

You bring your question and everything sitting heavy or unclear and together we open the space from there.

A card is not a prediction it is a mirror. The image, the colour and the symbols reflect your Shadow, your Ego and your Light back to you, so you can finally see what has been quietly shaping your life and what is ready to shift.

I guide you through the energetics of what the signs and symbols are pointing to as a teaching, so that by the time we close you leave with clarity and a deeper trust in your own inner knowing to carry forward. I weave mindset coaching into every reading, because the cards do not just show what is happening on the surface. They show what is moving underneath it.
